Delaware Nature Society

Associate Director, Development & Marketing (Full Time Position)

General Description:

Administers the Delaware Nature Society's Development and Marketing Department and directly supervises staff. Serves as the liaison to the development and related board committees and maintains contact with donors. Develops and implements program goals and fundraising plan to increase financial support for the Society and its mission through the capital development program, solicitation of support from individuals and preparation of grant requests to foundations, government sources, corporations, and public and private agencies. Composes requests and prepares acknowledgements for corporate sponsorships, scholarships and in-kind donations. Works with the Executive Director, Board Committees and staff to oversee staff implementation, promotion and development of solicitation and promotional materials related to annual giving, membership and volunteer coordination. Works closely with contract graphic designer/webmaster to implement marketing, fundraising, public relations and advertising plans.

Qualifications:

- Master's degree (preferred) in Business, Marketing, English, Journalism, or Communications or other appropriate fields
- Five years successful and progressive experience in fundraising
- Marketing experience preferred
- Excellent verbal, written, organizational, and public relations skills
- Good judgment and quick thinking skills
- Warm, outgoing personality and ability to negotiate with good rapport
- Willingness to work in a team environment
- High dependability
- Supervisory experience preferred
- Basic computer skills: word processing, spread sheet and database management experience
